Privacy Statement

Thank you for taking the time to review our privacy statement for the Sabre Passport to Freedom Survivor Scholarship Program website. Sabre GLBL Inc. (the “Company” or “we”) operates this website (collectively, the “Site”), to provide an online application process for the Sabre Passport to Freedom Survivor Scholarship Program (the “Program”), which is dedicated to making post-secondary education and vocational training attainable for human trafficking survivors.

INTRODUCTION

Please read the following carefully to understand our policies and practices regarding your personal information and how we will treat it. By using or accessing the Site, you agree to our privacy practices as set out in this privacy statement. If you do not agree with our practices, your ultimate choice is not to use the Site. Our privacy practices may change from time to time (see Changes to our Privacy Statement) and your continued use of the Site is deemed acceptance of such changes, so please check the statement periodically for updates.

This privacy statement (together with our Application Guide and any other documents referred to in it) describes the information that we collect from you or that you provide on this Site, and how that information may be used or disclosed by us. The Site is run from the United States. The majority of our systems, servers and data centers are located in the U.S. If you are accessing the Site from outside the U.S., you agree that your personal information may be transferred to the U.S., a jurisdiction which may have different privacy and data security protections than those of your own jurisdiction, to be processed and stored.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

We collect several types of information from and about users of our Site, including:

- Information that you provide by filling in the online forms on our Site. This includes information provided at the time of registering on our Site. We may also ask you for information when you report a problem with our Site;

- Records and copies of your correspondence (including e-mail addresses), if you contact us; and

- Records and copies of your submitted supporting documentation, as outlined in the Sabre Passport to Freedom Survivor Scholarship Application Guide (the “Application Guide”).
USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We use personal information in the following ways:

- To provide you with support and information that you request from us with regard to the Site, Program, and Application Guide;
- To evaluate your online application and supporting documentation for the Program, as presented in the Application Guide;
- To present the Site and their contents in a suitable and effective manner;
- To allow you to utilize the Site, if and when you choose to do so.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES

As presented in the Application Guide, we will disclose your personal information to a scholarship selection committee comprised of non-profit partners, hotel and airline partners, and Sabre employees. These committee members have been approved by the Silicon Valley Community Foundation, a comprehensive center for philanthropic pursuits, located in Mountain View, California, as well as Sabre’s Passport to Freedom Program Manager.

We may also disclose your personal information to third parties to:

- Comply with any court order or other legal obligation or when data is requested by government or law enforcement authorities;
- Enforce or apply our terms of use and any other agreements; or
- Protect the rights, property, or safety of the Company, our customers, or others. This may include exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

ACCESSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We strive to maintain accurate, complete, and relevant personal information for the purposes identified in this privacy statement. We make good faith efforts to make available for your review of personal information and to process requests for modification of inaccurate personal information provided to us through the Site. However, we may decline to process requests that are unreasonably repetitive, require disproportionate technical effort, jeopardize the privacy of others, are extremely impractical, or for which access is not otherwise required by local law. Updates to your personal information provided at registration can be made directly via your profile page or through an email to sabre.corporate.responsibility@sabre.com.
DATA SECURITY

We have implemented reasonable measures designed to secure your personal information from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, alteration and disclosure.

The safety and security of your information also depends on you. Any content, including personal information, may be visible to other users and can be read, collected, or used by them. We are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on the Site. You understand and acknowledge that, even after removal, copies of your content, including personal information, that you provide may remain viewable in cached and archived pages. Although we take efforts to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to the Site. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk.

CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF 13

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under age 13. In the event that we learn that we have collected personal information from a child under age 13 without verification of parental consent, we will take steps to delete that personal information as soon as possible.

YOUR CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS

California law permits users of our Website that are California residents to request certain information regarding our disclosure of personal information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. To make such a request, California residents should send an e-mail to privacy@sabre.com or write us at: Sabre Inc., 3150 Sabre Drive, Southlake, Texas 76092 Attn: Privacy Office.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY STATEMENT

It is our policy to post any changes we make to our privacy practices on this page. The date the privacy statement was last revised is identified at the top of the privacy statement.
